FORESHADOWS

The year is 1969. Ten years have passed since the distinguished members of 1959 left dear old R.H.S. to seek their fortunes. A reunion is now being held in the luxuriant Blue Room of the new Hilton Hotel.

Ray Smith, the master of ceremonies for the "Romper Room" will announce the arrival of our distinguished guests.

For entertainment we have a famous opera singer and actress Marion Bruce, who now co-stars with Howard Keel. On the lighter side we have Sonny Humphrey, who has surpassed Elvis with his new recording.

Mary Lucy and Howard are doing quite well together. Howard works for the New York Giants and Mary Lucy stays home and takes care of the quadruplets.

We have the political world with us also. Jimmy Fuqua is the mayor of Podunk while Dick Moseley is the judge on "The Verdict Is Mine". John Fennell was recently tried on the charge of painting "Yankee Go Home" signs across the Mason-Dixon line.

Do you remember Bill McCullough? He is now that fast-talking, high pressure television commercial announcer. In the movie world we find Joe Lynch, whose new movie "Lassie, Go Home" was a big flop. William Nichols is a big time stage manager on Broadway.

June Lyne is secretary to the Governor of Kentucky. Betty Harris is a marriage counselor . . . Martha Hutchinson is printing her own lunch tickets . . . Anita McMillan is raising a family . . . Jean Duncan caught Kenneth Smith.

Wayne Purvis, a doctor of psychology at Western State Mental Institute, is assisted by Mary Rushing, who is head nurse. Bettye Whaley regrets that she can't be with us but she is honeymooning with her new husband. The other four are now under the care of Dr. Purvis.

John Allen owns a chain of pool rooms . . . Ervin Belcher owns a chain of drug stores . . . Gary Koch is a playboy . . . John Guion is Ed Higgin's partner . . . George Gupton is president of Popsrite Popcorn Machines, Inc. . . . Wendell Belcher is a cheerleader . . . Charlotte Ball, Arline Chapman, Linda Goley are happily married.

Morris Herndon recently took over Gene Noble's place as a disc jockey . . . Peggy Greer is a school teacher . . . Bobby Page is a Ford dealer . . . Joe Page is a test pilot for "Kiddies Model Airplanes, Inc." Jimmy Underwood is sponsoring a television show "I Was a Teenage Adult" . . . Henry Ashby is in the Marines . . . Fannie Fuqua is supervisor of Logan County Hospital.

Suzanne and Barbara got lost on our Senior trip and have recently been discovered in Africa staying with Ramar . . . Mildred Williams operates a beauty shop . . . James Tillery is a truant officer . . . Lillie Grinter is assistant Home Demonstration Agent in Logan County . . . Edward Bush is a fire chief . . . Paul Chandler was the first man to go to the moon; unfortunately he is not with us tonight.

Lena Monroe is a smart "Cookie" . . . Jimmy Daniels is now coaching football for Harvard . . . Dick Boster just brought out the new cigarette Inhalem . . . Charles Miller is a famous Math professor in the Logan Elementary School . . . Ellen Herndon was presented with a million dollars by Micheal Anthony . . . Linda Tyree just returned with her husband, who is a tobacco buyer, from their ninth trip around the world.

And now as our reunion draws to a close we depart hoping that the coming years will bring us success and happiness.
